- Prior to the operation of a catering or ice cream vending vehicle in the city, a permit must be obtained from the Brisbane police department approving hours of operation, routes, limitation of noise level and other matters determined by the chief of police, which may affect the health, safety or peace of the citizens of Brisbane. Additional charges may apply. See section 5.20.140 – Catering and ice cream vending trucks for details.
- All new businesses must receive City Approval before a license can be issued.

Can I file for an Exemption?

Applicants may file an exemption from business license tax by filing a new business application stating the facts upon which exemption is claimed. If the City deems the organization exempt, a business license will be issued. See Chapter 5.12 of the Municipal Code for details.

When do I renew my license?

Business licenses are valid January 1st through December 31st. Renewal forms and the related business license tax is due by January 31st each year. MuniServices mails courtesy renewal notices; however, non-receipt of the renewal form does not relieve the renewal applicant of any liability or responsibility for completing and filing the form on time.

Is non-compliance penalized?

Failure to file a renewal form by January 31st will result in a late fee of 10% of the business license fee, of an annual license, if filed within the next 30 days after the due date or a late fee of 25% of the business license fee if filed within the next 60 days after the due date.

Where can I find business license forms?

Business license fees and applications are available at www.revds.com. Online filing is also available at <https://Brisbane.BizlicenseOnline.com>.

May I use other tax forms and/or send my payments to the previous tax collection provider?

No. In order to be properly credited for your license tax payments, you must use the forms provided by MuniServices. All payments and correspondence must be sent to MuniServices.

Can I file online?

Yes, except businesses that generate more than $10 million in gross receipts and pay sales tax to the City of Brisbane. Otherwise, businesses needing to apply or renew for their City of Brisbane business license may file online at <https://Brisbane.BizlicenseOnline.com>

What is the definition of gross receipts?

"Gross receipts" includes the total of amounts actually received or receivable from sales and the total amounts actually received or receivable for the performance of any act of service, or whatever nature it may be, for which a charge is made or credit allowed, whether or not such act or service is done as a part of or in connection with the sale of materials, goods, wares or merchandise. Included in "gross receipts" shall be all receipts, cash, credits, and property of any kind or nature, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest paid or payable, or losses or other expenses whatsoever" Please see Brisbane, CA Code of Ordinances, Ord 232 1-6, 1977, for a list of items that may be excluded from gross receipts or call MuniServices for assistance.

What is proof of certification requirements?

Specific license types require proof of certification and/or pre-approval by the City. Proof of certification or approval may include, but not be limited to: copy of permits, copy of board certification, departmental signatures, etc. Some of the most commonly required certifications are:

- California Massage Therapy Council Certification
- San Mateo Health Permit
- State Contractors Licenses

Please note that the above list is not an all inclusive listing. For questions regarding certification requirements, please contact the MuniServices Business License Department for additional information.

What if my business closed or is no longer doing business?

If your business has been closed or if you are no longer doing business in the municipality, please check the "business closed" box located on the application and fax to the attention of the Business License Department at (855) 219-4338. You may also email MuniServices Business License Support at bizlicensesupport@muniservices.com.

What is the new $4 fee I see on your forms and do I have to pay it?

California Senate Fee: On September 19, 2012, Governor Brown signed Senate Bill 1186 (SB 1186) into law. SB 1186 is intended to increase disability access, encourage compliance with construction-related accessibility requirements, develop education resources for businesses, and facilitate compliance with Federal and State disability laws. From January 1, 2013, and until December 31, 2017, cities and counties were required to collect a State mandated fee of $1.00 from "any applicant for a local business license or equivalent instrument or permit, and from any applicant for the renewal of a business license or equivalent instrument or permit." Assembly Bill 1379 was passed on October 11, 2017 which extends the assessment of the fee indefinitely and also the State mandated fee from $1.00 to $4.00 from January 1, 2018 until December 31, 2023. The City is required by law to inform you of the following: Under Federal and State law, compliance with disability access laws is a serious and significant responsibility that applies to all California building owners and tenants with buildings
